

Village of Versailles Parks & Recreation Information

The Village of Versailles has two publicly-owned parks and one privately-owned park available for the enjoyment of its citizens and visitors to the community. We also have a YMCA facility and public golf course available to meet the recreational needs of the community and surrounding area.

Ward Park, located at 448 Woodland Drive, is a publicly-owned park which contains three shelter houses, a swimming pool, tennis court, ball diamond, concession and restroom facilities, and playground equipment. The park shelters are available for reservation beginning January 2nd, with reservations being made at the Administrative Offices, 177 North Center Street. The cost of reservation is $20.00 per shelter, and is non-refundable. Shelters No. 2 and 3 have a maximum occupancy of 64 persons, while Shelter No. 1 has a maximum occupancy of 32 persons. The swimming pool located within Ward Park is open to the public from the beginning of June through the end of August (opening and closing dates change yearly depending on the school schedule). The rates for a season pass to the Ward Park Swimming Pool are as follows:

1 Adult	$65.00
2 Family Members	$85.00
3 Family Members	$95.00
